Toledo, Ohio.

Attention of Miss Nell L. Jaffe, Assistant Curator.

Dear Madam:

Thank you very much indeed for your letter of the 4th and for the photographic print which accompanied it.

It will be necessary to have a photograph of the painting in the New York Historical Society made, and this will undoubtedly take some time, but I will request a copy for your use and have it done.

I much appreciate your promptness and your courtesy in sending me a photograph of the painting in Mr. Secor's gift, and if what I have to say about it gets into print I shall send you a copy.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.

Dear Madam:

Last November you very courteously sent me a photograph of the painting by Beekhout in your collection. May I trouble you to give me a reading of the signature on this painting for purposes of confirming my own observation. I enclose a stamped envelope.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Dear Miss Jaffe:

Y. v. R.
Please pardon the delay that has intervened in my securing the copy of the painting by Weckhout in the New York Historical Society collection. I am sending it to you herewith. Will you be so good as to let me know whether there is any record of the provenance of ~~this~~ picture. Do you know from whose collection it was secured before it came into the possession of the donor and will you give me the donor's name? I am hoping to publish both pictures in a forthcoming issue of the bulletin of the New York Historical Society and will endeavor to see that the copy is sent you.

Thanking you for your courtesy, I am
